(An “overthrow” results from the deliberate effort of throwing, flicking, slapping, or kicking the ball in an attempt to strike the wicket and cause a run out, or at anytime when the ball is live.)
 - (v) When a delivery is called “no ball”, “wide,” or “leg side” by the umpire, the batting team will be credited with a two (2) run penalty. If the batter plays a “no ball” into a scoring zone and the batters cross and make their ground, the zone score and the physical runs made will be added to the 2 run penalty.
- (b)
 - (i) If in the opinion of the umpire, the fielder, whilst attempting to run, the batter out does not have “reasonable control” of the ball and it hits a scoring zone the relevant bonus runs will apply.
 - (ii) Reasonable control may be defined as the deliberate act by a fielder which causes the ball to obviously change from its original path to the direction of the intended target wickets, in an attempt to run the batters out. Flicking, slapping and kicking the ball come within this definition. Any zone struck as a result of a legitimate attempt will not result in bonus runs being scored.

(Note as a guide, the bowler’s arm must not be straightened in the delivery action. If the elbow remains bent throughout the delivery it maybe a fair delivery.)
 - (ii) Any part of the bowler’s front foot is not grounded inside the return crease and behind the popping crease at the moment of delivery. (Note any part of the front foot on the line is a “no ball”.)
 - (iii) If the ball when bowled overarm or underarm, pitched on or before the underarm line, it shall be a “no ball.”

- (b) A batsman can be given out in the following ways on a “no ball.”
- (i) If the ball is hit twice other than to protect the wickets (Refer Rule 16c {iii})
 - (ii) If either batter deliberately interferes with the fielding team (refer Rule 16c {ii}).
 - (iii) If in attempting a run either batsman is run out (refer Rule 16e)
 - (iv) If the striker is run out by the “keeper” according to Rule 16e (ii).

RULE 14 - Wide and Leg side Wide Balls

- (a) A “wide” will be called when: The ball passes on the striker’s off-side, outside the intersection of the batting crease and the edge of the pitch, without being touched by the striker’s equipment or person.
- (c) A “leg side wide” shall be called when: The ball passes outside the intersection of the batting crease and the leg side line without being touched by the striker’s person or equipment. A ball passing between the batter and the stumps is not a wide.
- (d) For the purpose of measurement the edge of the pitch will be taken as the off side line and the point 45cm from the centre stump on the leg side line.

- (e) A batter maybe dismissed off a wide ball only by way of run out, stumped or interference. Batters may also be dismissed by all forms of dismissal when a “wide ball” is bowled; bearing in mind if a ball is struck by the striker’s person or equipment then it is no longer a “wide.”
- (f) A batter dismissed on a “wide” ball will be penalised five (5) runs. The 2 runs bonus for the wide is negated by the dismissal.
- (g) A “wide” counts as part of the over, except in the last over of either innings when it is rebowled.

- (c) An appeal must be in the form of a verbal question to the umpire unless it is clear that the batter is out clean bowled. The umpire shall have the final jurisdiction on all appeals and retain the right to alter the decision provided it is done promptly.

RULE 16 - Dismissals

All dismissals carry a five run penalty to the batting side. There is no double play. Both batters shall cross after the dismissal. A batter can be given out for any of the following dismissals:

(a) BOWLED: If the wicket is struck by the ball and at least one of the bails are completely and permanently removed, even if the ball touches the striker’s body or equipment first.

(b) CAUGHT: If a ball from the stroke of a bat or the hand(s) holding the bat, is caught before it touches the ground. (A striker shall still be out should the ball pass from the bat onto the striker’s body, or vice versa before being caught.)

Note: (i) A catch maybe taken off all boundary netting except a direct hit to the six (6) net. However should the ball hit the side netting, then pass onto the six net on the full and be caught the striker will be out. Conversely should a ball pass from a fielder’s hand or body directly onto the six net and then be caught, the striker is not out and all runs will count.

(d) STUMPED:

If the striker misses the ball whilst out of his or her ground and the wicketkeeper completely removes the bail(s) with the hand(s) holding the ball, or the forearm of the hand(s) holding the ball, or as a result of the ball rebounding directly from the body.

(i) On the line is out.

(e) RUN OUT:

(i) If in running or at any time the ball is in play either batter is out of their ground, and a fielder breaks the wicket with the ball at the end to which the batter is out of his ground.

(ii) A striker can be given "run out" on a no ball if in attempting a stumping; the wicketkeeper removes the bail(s) on the first attempt then resets the bails a second time then removes the bail(s) again.

Note:

1. If a batter is attempting to regain the crease and the bail(s) are not completely removed until after the batter makes good the crease, the batter is not out.

2. No batter may be out if the ball breaks the wicket having come directly from the net. Conversely, a batter shall be out should the ball, having come from a net be touched by a member of the fielding side before breaking the wicket.

Note:

(i) The bowler must have had the ball at commencement of the delivery stride.

(ii) If a bowler completes a delivery action but does not break the wickets this will be considered a 'warning and will not incur a "no Ball" Dead Ball 2 run penalty.'

(iii) If a bowler whilst in the act of bowling releases the ball and breaks the wicket at the non-striker's end, "no ball, dead ball" shall be called. This delivery shall count as part of the over and incur the "no ball" 2 run penalty.

(iv) If the mankad attempt is successful the batting side loses five (5) runs. The ball counts as part of the over.

(v) If the mankad attempt is unsuccessful the umpire will call "no ball, dead ball" and two runs will be added to the team score and will count as part of the over

RULE 17 - Striking the Wickets in Dismissals.

(a) Batters must not have their running path unfairly impeded. If, in the umpire's opinion this constitutes unfair play the batters are not to be given out. Runs will count. The fielding team is to be issued a warning. A second occurrence will mean the fielding team will be penalised five (5) runs. Note a player may not be guilty of obstruction if he does not move.

(b) The fielder has right of way provided they are legitimately fielding the ball.

RULE 20 - Bowler changing Direction/Style.

(a) A bowler must advise the umpire if changing bowling style (overarm to underarm, left arm to right arm or vice versa), or sides of the wicket (over the wicket to around the wicket or vice versa).

(b) When a bowler changes direction or style, the change is to both batters unless a difference is advised.

(c) The umpire must advise both batters of the change and only one advice need be given unless there is a further change.

(d) If the batter believes the umpire has overlooked a change they may appeal. However the umpire's decision is final.

(e) A bowler will be "no balled" for contravening this rule.

RULE 21 - Ball Leaving the Playing Area

(a) Any ball that leaves the playing area, lodges in the net or conduit as a result of being struck by the striker will be called "dead ball" by the umpire and rebowled. No score will count and the original striker must face the ball again.
